4. Correspondence sent to the Company by electronic means should enable unambiguous identification of the status of the person and the rights vested in him/her.
5. The Company approves a scan of a separately prepared document recorded in PDF or JPG format as a document prepared in an electronic form.
6. Together with documents sent by the shareholders electronically, which in the original were prepared in a different language than Polish, the shareholder shall send their translation into Polish made by a sworn translator.

III. Shareholders' rights related to supplementing the agenda of the EGM and submitting draft resolutions.

1. Shareholder's right to demand that particular items be included into the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting.

A shareholder or shareholders of the Company representing at least one twentieth of the share capital of the Company can request that particular items be included into the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting. Such a request should be submitted to the Company's Board of Management no later than twenty-one days before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, i.e. no later than by 17 May 2018 (Article 401 § 1 of CCC). The request should contain a justification or a draft resolution concerning the proposed item on the agenda. The request can be submitted in writing at the Company's registered office at Partyzantów 11, 41-200 Sosnowiec or in an electronic form to the Company's e-mail address: wz@cntsa.pl.

A shareholder or shareholders should prove that they hold a sufficient number of shares as of the date of submitting the request by attaching a deposit certificate(s) to the request, and in the case of shareholders who are not natural persons, should also confirm their right to act on behalf of the entity by attaching a current excerpt from the relevant register. In the case of shareholders submitting the request using electronic means of communication, the documents should be sent in PDF or JPG format

2. Shareholder's right to submit draft resolutions.

A shareholder or shareholders of the Company representing at least one twentieth of the share capital of the Company can, before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, submit draft resolutions in writing concerning items included in the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting or items which are to be included in the agenda (Article 401 § 4 of the Commercial Companies Code) to the Company at its registered office at Partyzantów 11, 41-200 Sosnowiec, or via electronic means of communication to the Company's e-mail address: wz@cntsa.pl. Shareholder(s) should prove their ownership of an appropriate number of shares as of the date of submitting the request by attaching to the request, e.g. a deposit certificate(s), whereas shareholders who are not natural persons should also confirm their authority to act on behalf of such an entity by attaching a current excerpt from the relevant register. In the case of shareholders submitting the request using electronic means of communication, all the documents should be sent in PDF or JPG format. During the Extraordinary General Meeting, each shareholder may submit draft resolutions concerning items included in the agenda (Article 401 § 5 of CCC).

IV. The manner of exercising voting rights by a proxy.

1. General rules for exercising voting rights by a proxy.

A shareholder who is a natural person can participate in the EGM and exercise voting rights in person or by a proxy. A shareholder who is not a natural person can participate in and exercise their voting rights through a person(s) authorised to make declarations of will on their behalf or by a proxy. Power of attorney to participate in the EGM and exercise the voting rights is granted in writing or in an electronic form.

The forms enabling exercising voting rights by a proxy are available from the date of convening the Extraordinary General Meeting of CNT S.A. on the Company's website at: <http://www.cntsa.pl>. The forms referred to above have been attached to the templates of powers of attorney, which have been prepared separately for shareholders being natural persons and separately for shareholders being legal persons or organisational units not being legal persons but having legal capacity.

2. Method of notifying the Company by means of electronic communication about an appointment of a proxy and granting a power of attorney.

- a) Shareholders shall notify the Company of the appointment of a proxy and granting of a power of attorney in an electronic form at the following e-mail address: wz@cntsa.pl. In the notification, the shareholder shall provide his or her telephone number and e-mail address, as well as the telephone number and e-mail address of the proxy, so that the Company can communicate with the shareholder and the proxy. The notification on appointing a proxy and granting the power of attorney should also include the scope of the power of attorney, i.e. indicate the number of shares from which the voting right will be exercised and the date of the General Meeting at which these rights will be exercised. In addition, the shareholder and the shareholder's proxy being a natural person should attach a declaration of consent to processing their personal data by the Company in order to identify the shareholder and the proxy for the purpose of verifying the validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic form.
- b) Along with a notice on appointing a proxy and granting the power of attorney in an electronic form, the shareholder shall send the text of the power of attorney, excluding instructions on exercising voting rights by a proxy, a scan of the identity card or pages of the passport enabling identification of the shareholder and the proxy or a scan of any other official document enabling identification of the shareholder granting the power of attorney and an attorney. If the power of attorney is granted by a legal person or an organisational unit not being a legal person, but having legal capacity, the shareholder shall send a scan of an extract from the register in which it is registered or a scan of any other document confirming the power of attorney of persons acting on behalf of such an entity. If the power of attorney has been granted to a legal person or an organisational unit which is not a legal person, yet having legal capacity, the shareholder shall additionally send a scan of an excerpt from the register in which the proxy is registered or any other document confirming the existence of such an entity.

- c) The principles described in point b) above apply accordingly to notifying the Company about revoking the power of attorney by electronic means.
- d) The notification on granting and/or revoking the power of attorney in an electronic form can be made not later than by 3 p.m. on 6 June 2018.
- e) The rules described in point b) above do not release the proxy from an obligation to present documents for his or her identification when drawing up an attendance list of persons entitled to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting referred to in point b).

3. Verification of validity of the power of attorney and identification of the shareholder and the proxy.

- a) In order to verify validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic form and identify the shareholder and the proxy, after receiving a notification on appointing the proxy and granting the power of attorney in an electronic form in accordance with the provisions of points 2 a) and 2 b) above, the Company checks whether the information specified in point 2 a) and scans of the documents specified in point 2 b) have been attached, and in the case of legal persons and organisational units which are not legal persons but have legal capacity, the Company checks whether the power of attorney has been granted by persons authorised to represent a given entity.
- b) The Company has the right to call the number indicated by the shareholder in accordance with point 2 a) or send a return message to a given e-mail address in order to verify the fact that the shareholder has granted a power of attorney in an electronic form.
- c) The Company can additionally take other actions aimed at identifying the shareholder and a proxy in order to verify validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic form.
- d) A notice of granting or revoking a power of attorney in an electronic form without observing the requirements specified in points 2 a), 2 b) and 2 d) shall not be binding on the Company.

4. The power of attorney granted to a member of the Board of Management or an employee of the Company

A Member of the Board of Management or an employee of the Company can be proxies of shareholders at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

If a shareholder's proxy at the EGM is a member of the Company's Board of Management, a member of the Company's Supervisory Board, or an employee of the Company, the power of attorney can authorize them to represent the shareholder only at the EGM it concerns. The proxy is obliged to disclose to the shareholder any circumstances indicating existence or a possibility of a conflict of
